MEADOWDALE HIGH SCHOOL

LYNNWOOD, WASHINGTON

Smiles voices
Active minds sharing
Looking upward together
In school there is only the beginning
But slowly we learn
Of the world and of ourselves
Tomorrow is our goal, and for this,
We reach.

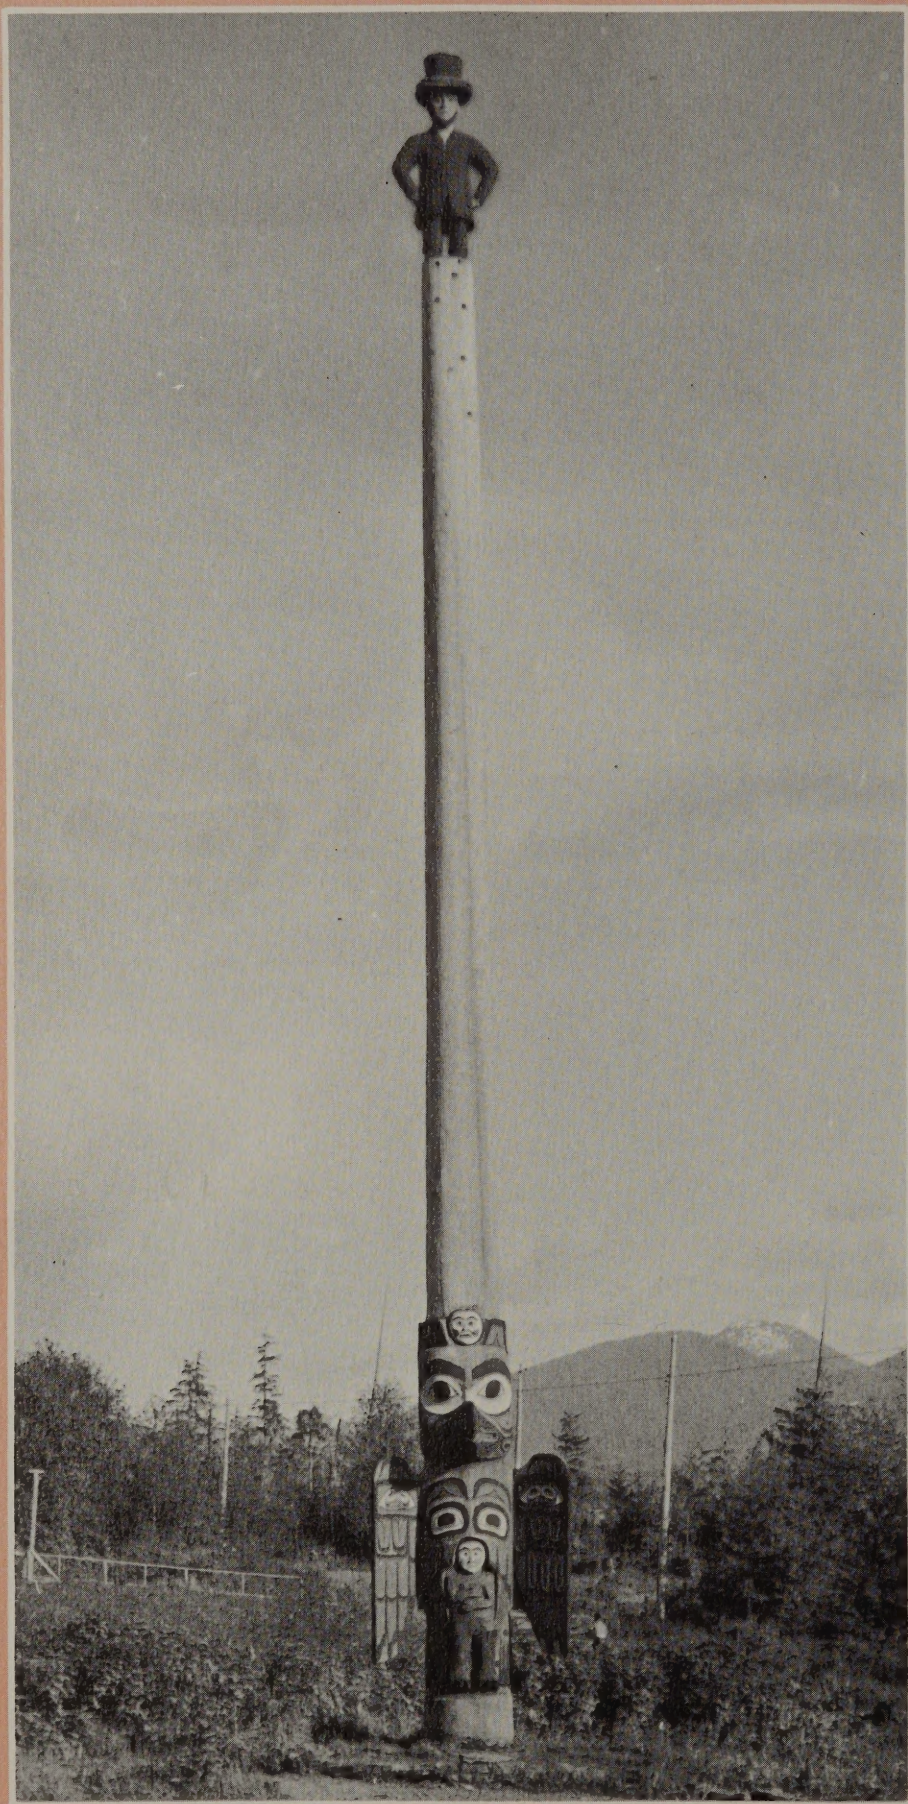

Smiles, voices
Each of us searching,
nearing the meaning of life.
Together we look upward
But single, posing questions answered only within,
We slowly climb, alone
We reach.

Carol Jell '69
sep. 69

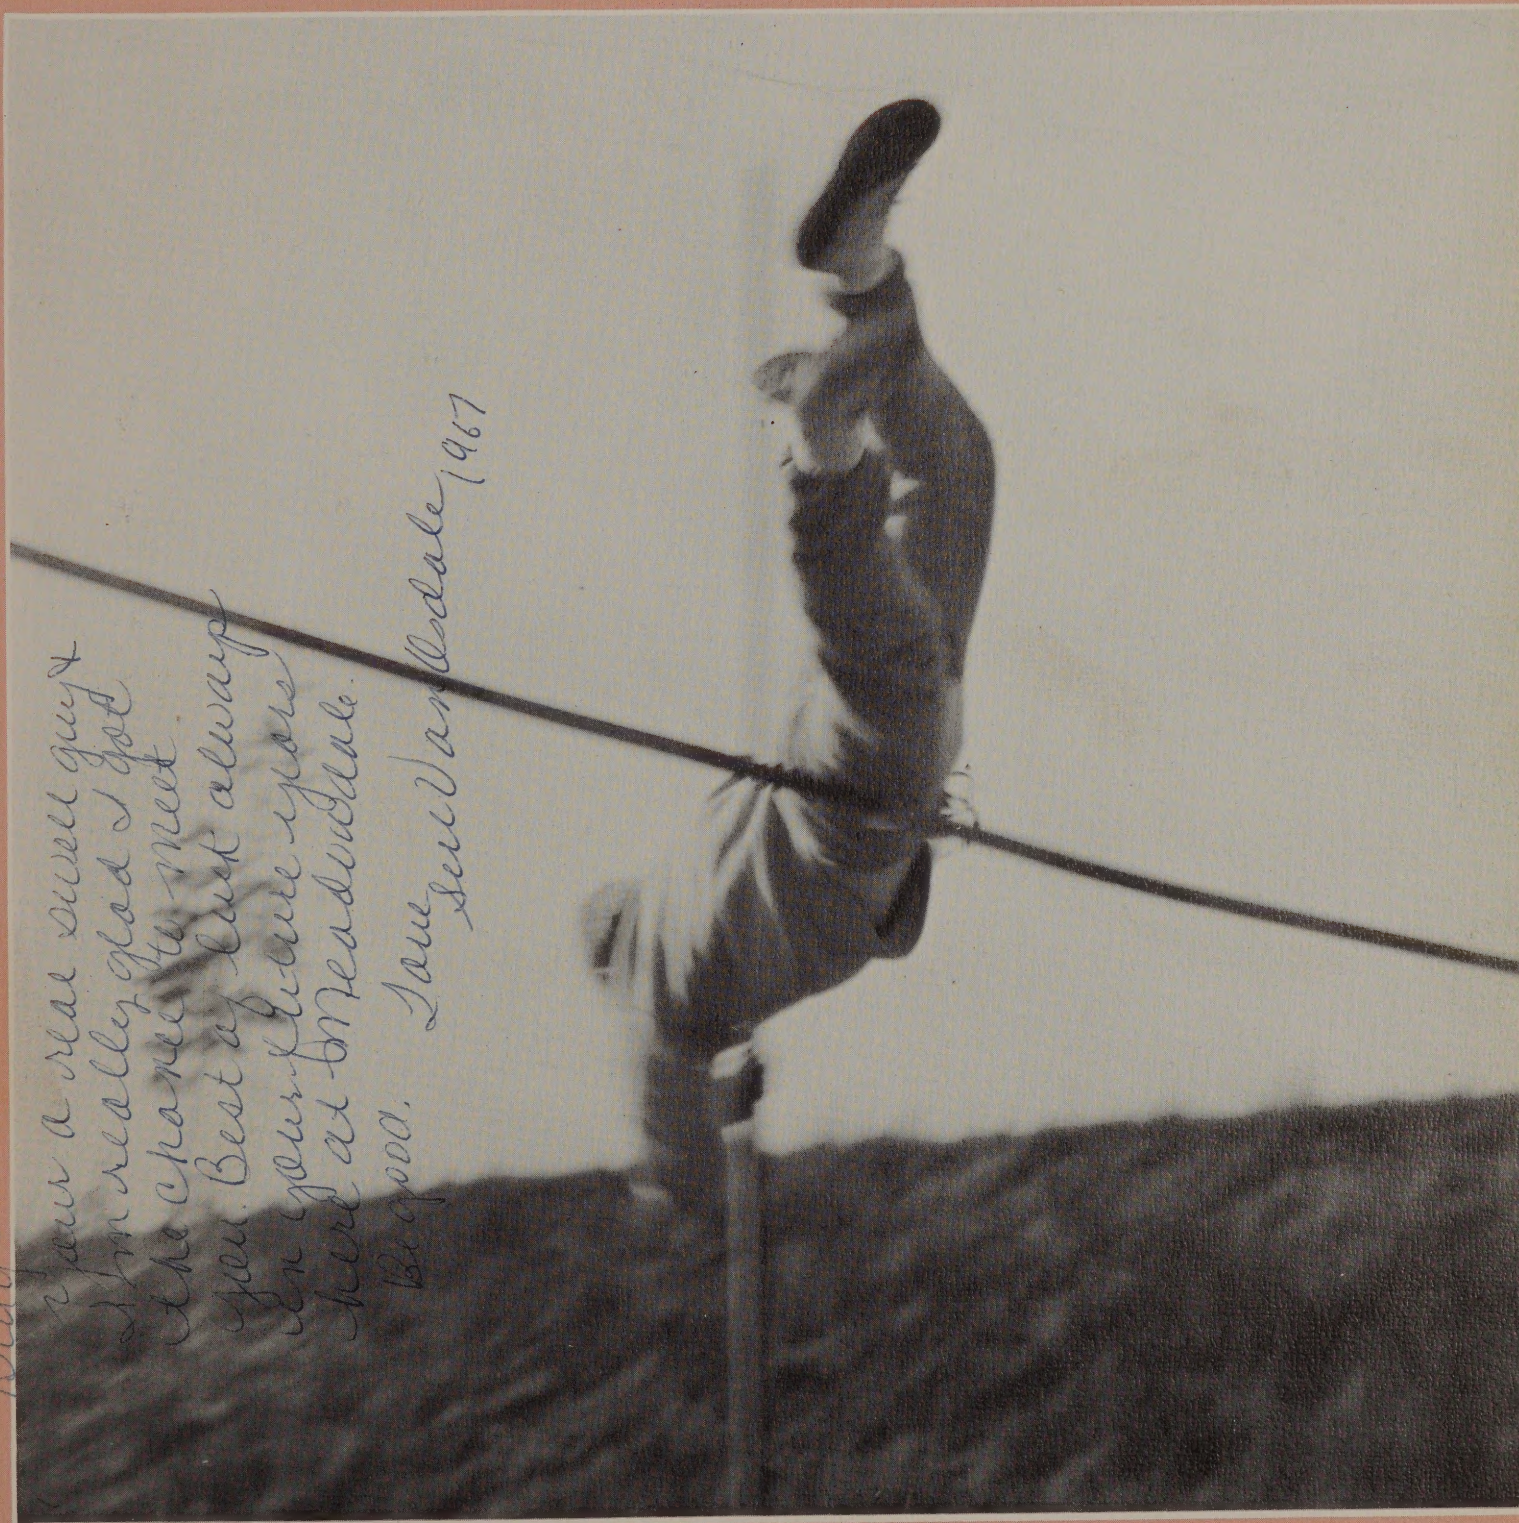

Smiles, voices.
Capable hands pushing,
telling us to climb.
We stumble, sometimes fall,
But hands motivated by loyalty and pride,
Pull us to our feet
and again we reach.

Smiles, voices.
Many people, together,
reaching for a time and a place.
Individual goals, successes.

But the school, united by loyalty and pride,
Works together and once again
we reach.

Krag -
You a real swell guy I'm really glad I got the chance to meet
you. Best of luck always in your future years
here at Meadowdale.
Be good. Love
Sue Vandale 1967

To look out and not in, and there was some way in which I could truly express my deepest appreciation for all you did for me when I was new my 'Thank-you' will just be sufficient.

We have had a lot of fun and I will never forget it.
Best of luck with all you do.

JERRY KARNOFSKI — Principal

Students realize that teachers are a necessity to the school and to their future. They direct studies, supervise clubs, and support MHS. Without them, Meadowdale would lack direction and purpose. Sharing their many interests with the students, teachers bring warmth and enthusiasm to learning.

CORRINE ABBOTT

"As the senior class goes, so goes Meadowdale." This warning was issued to an inexperienced group of seniors who were not completely aware of the responsibilities that accompany the prestige of being a senior. Determinedly, the seniors rallied to win the SAC card sales drive. With this victory, the seniors gained the respect of underclassmen. More importantly, the senior class won the self-respect so essential to the unity of a class.

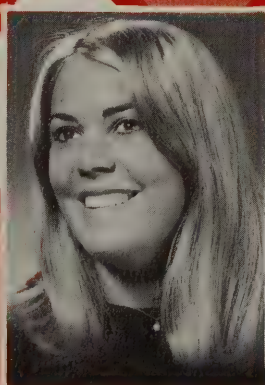

With this new respect and sense of responsibility as a foundation, the seniors continued to build a strong, capable senior class. During the annual magazine drive, the class of '67 worked to raise money for Meadowdale ASB fund. Together the class of '67 worked for Meadowdale.

It has become evident that there was a large amount of truth in the warning given to the senior class. The school did go as the Class of '67 went. Meadowdale has grown a year older, a year stronger, and a year prouder.

Miss Mc Elvain

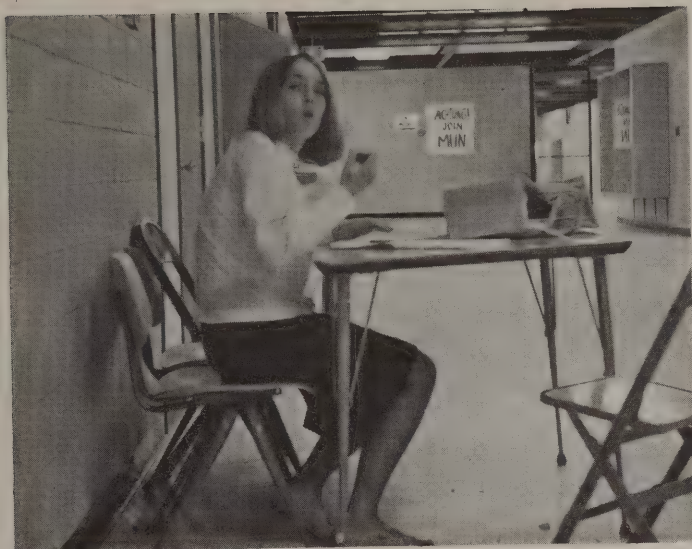

"Climb high, climb far,
Your goal the sky, your aim the star."
Hopkins

Past the stage of bewilderment and one step from attainment, this was the junior class. Their spirit increased along with their ability to unite individual experiences into one. Their bewilderment was replaced by responsibility — that of upholding and creating traditions of Meadowdale High. As seniors, the class of '68 promises to guide MHS towards new heights with their enthusiasm and drive.

SOPHOMORES

"... to teach him to creep till he knows how to climb."
O'Reilly

A group of exhausted students paused to examine their work. From the high steel beams of the sophomore hall dangled scores of nylons, and wool stockings taped to walls and windows formed the words "Sock the Tigers". From the first tremendous moment of entering high school, the class of 1969 had pride and spirit that quickly impressed the upperclassmen and faculty. Early in the year, the sophomores created an important self-respect and determination that encouraged the entire class to reach high toward success. A class yell, the first notable achievement of the sophomore class, was enthusiastically performed at each pep assembly, which not only furthered class pride but also strengthened their contribution to Meadowdale. After a year of growth and adjustment, the class of '69 prepares to move upward toward increased spirit and responsibility in 1967-1968.

Auto Shop

Cinnamon-flavored aromas emerged from behind the closed door of the cooking class, and, in the woodshop, the sharp tang of fresh sawdust fought with the heavy smell of crankcase oil and carburetor fuel. The wide schedule of classes offered by Meadowdale during 1966-67 emphasized the rapid growth of experience and capabilities in both the student body and the faculty. The History department added a new one - semester class, Russian History, and also began a non-graded Contemporary Problems course. Drama students, instructed by Mr. Crossett, created and perfected "animal personalities", and the Meadowdale Physiology class, the only one offered in the district, spent long hours on frog dissections and anatomical charts. The business, language, home economics, wood shop, auto mechanics, and physical education departments again presented an even finer variety of courses and electives.

In both college preparatory and vocational classes, students worked with teachers to make 1966-67 not only a year of enjoyment, but a year of academic success.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT PUSHES MEADOWDALE UPWARD

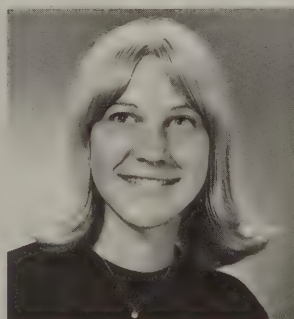

Long hours of door-to-door salesmanship marked the opening activity of the Meadowdale Associated Student Body. The annual Magazine Fund Drive, which began with the usual groans and complaints, soon snapped into an enthusiastic contest between classes and subscription sellers. This first united effort by Meadowdale's Student Body set the pace for the following school activities and community benefits. Throughout each event, both the record profit and the high spirit achieved by the students and the hard working ASB officers and council climaxed and highlighted the effort.

GIRLS' AND

After school on September 30, the commons was invaded by 200 unsavory characters, sporting beards, mismatched apparel, and combat boots. This was the 1966 Big and Little Sister Banquet, "Bumming Around" The Banquet was only one of the many successful activities sponsored by the Girls' Club. Girls' Club week captured the interest of many girls. The week included a kick-off assembly, committee sign-ups, a pepsi party and a tea for teachers and students new to Meadowdale and the district. Many money-raising activities supplied the funds used to finance the Tolo held in February. Members of Girls' Club worked in the concession stands during home games. The club also sponsored a movie and a dance.

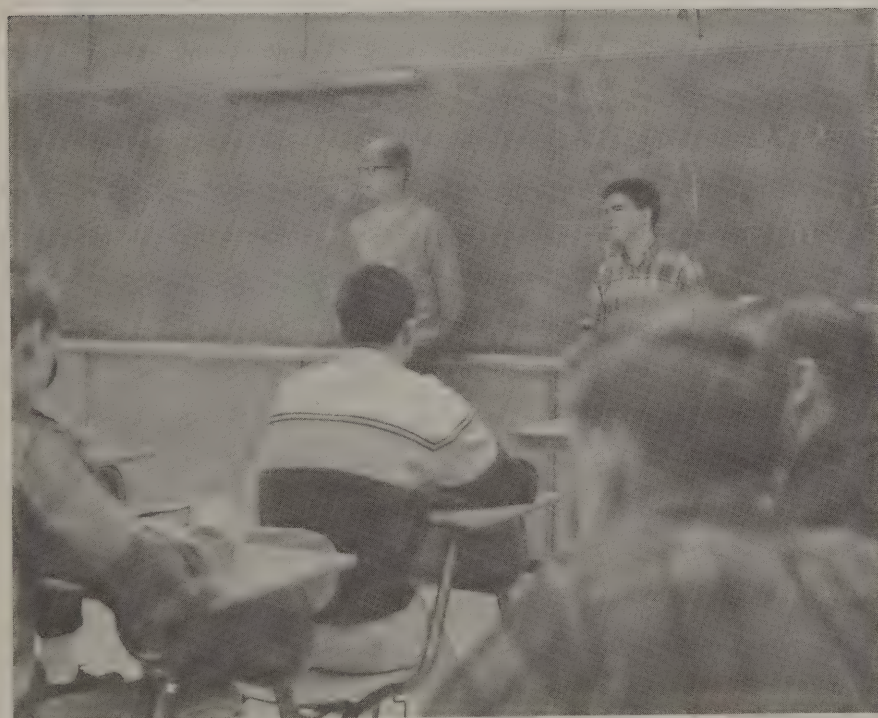

The Girls' Club has worked for and with the girls of Meadowdale to make this year of 1966-67 a successful and active one.

BOYS' CLUBS INSPIRE HIGHER GOALS

On many Friday nights, boys could be seen hurrying among the fans frantically stuffing popcorn into sacks and grabbing lukewarm hotdogs from the oven. During the football and basketball season, Boys Club, alternating with Girls Club, worked in the concession stands to raise funds. Usually these hardworking members came from the Active Boys Club, a group of about fifty, who were especially interested in the activities and purposes of the club. Along with the advisors, Mr. Lee and Mr. Weaver, the officers, Lanny Hansen, Dan Brecht, Mark Steinberger, and Randy Mickels, supervised the growing collection of money intended for a new trophy case for Meadowdale. The reader board, last year's Boys Club project, was kept constantly up-to-date with lively reminders of school events. Because of their vigor and acceptance of responsibility, Boys Club overcame difficulties and made 1966-67 a year of growing achievement.

Officers: Mark Steinberger, Secretary; Dan Brecht, Vice President; Lanny Hansen, President; Randy Mickels, Sergeant-at-arms.

Sergeant-at-Arms Randy Mickels and President Lanny Hansen discuss plans for an approaching event sponsored by the Active Boys Club.

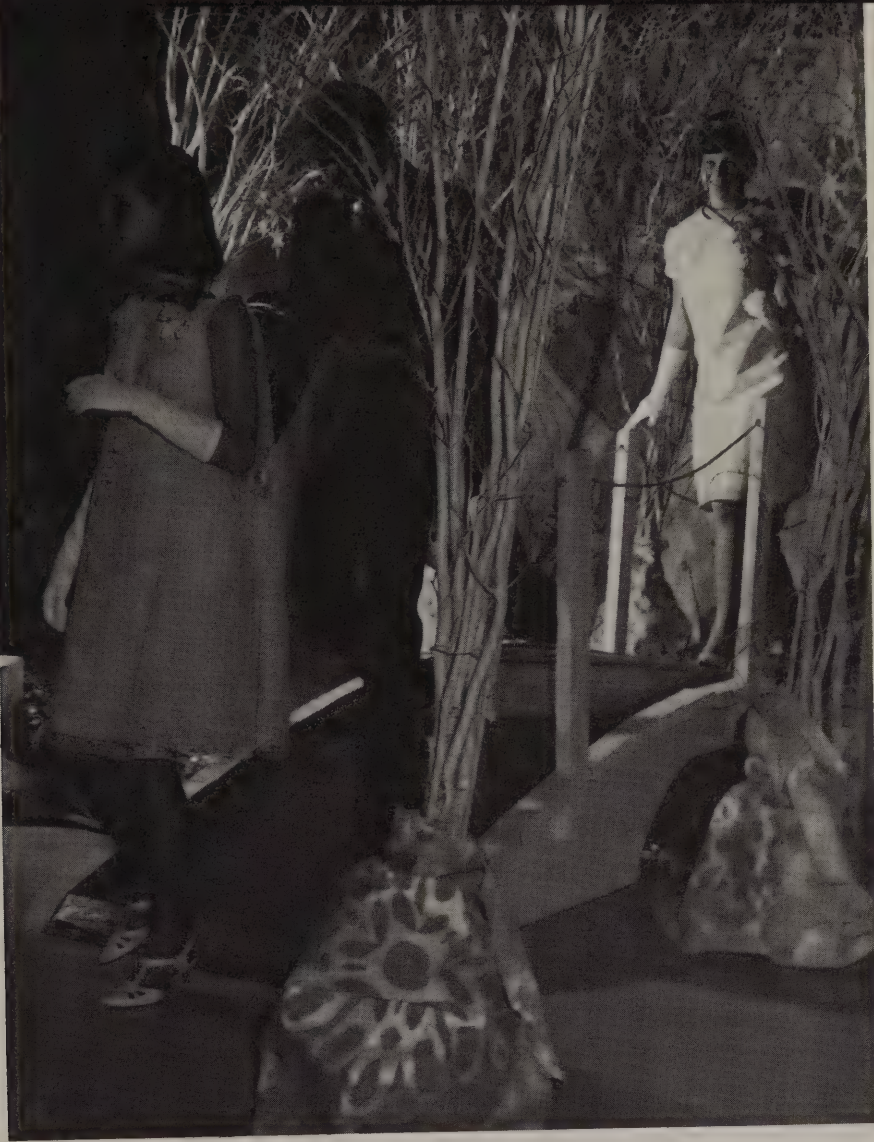

WINTER FASCINATION IS A SUCCESS

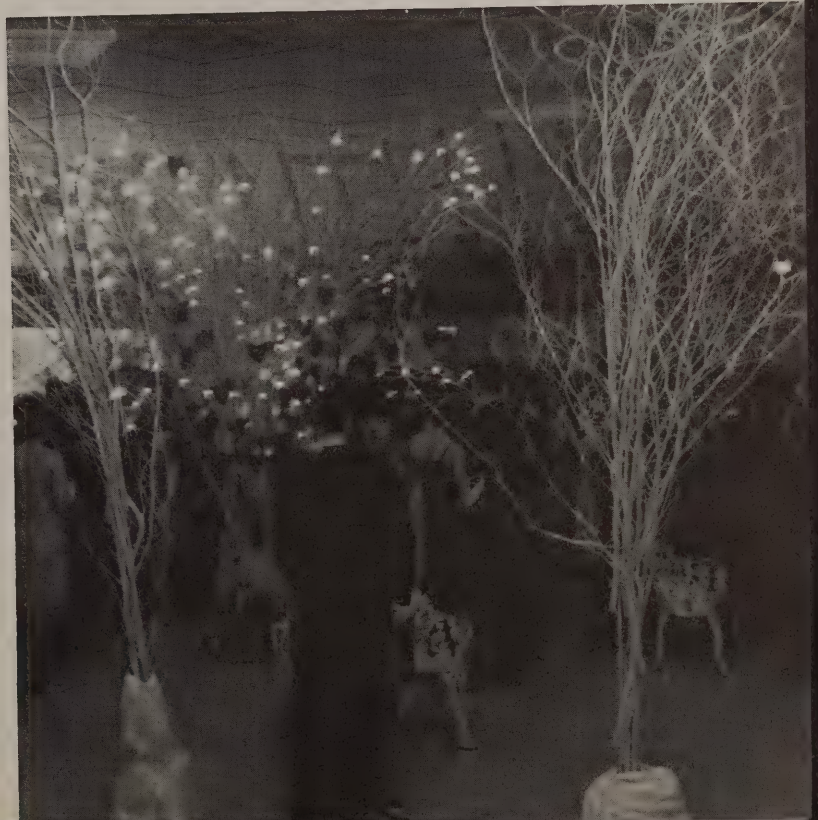

Couples danced gaily and triumphantly among the decorated fir trees at the Junior Prom, Winter Fascination. This successful dance was the result of weeks of organization, but this alone was not the reason for the atmosphere of triumph. The Junior Class set a precedent and created a tradition at Meadowdale. Despite dissent and controversy, the Junior Class successfully presented its case for a prom. With unlimited cooperation from their advisors, the Juniors showed Meadowdale that they could function effectively as a class. The Junior Prom was more than a dance; it was set by the Junior Class as a goal and it was one they had the courage to reach for.

Covered with red paper hearts, the sweetheart tree stood in the center of a small pink forest. From the transformed stage, couples seated at tables looked down on the crowded dance floor as they enjoyed their refreshments. In a small clearing of pink trees on a circular bandstand, the Ken Cloud Orchestra played familiar old dance tunes. Couples walked over a small, white bridge as they entered. Others talked quietly in the shadow of the sweetheart tree. This memorable evening was conceived and produced by Girls' Club. The Tolo has been and always will be an effort on the part of the Meadowdale Girls' Club to provide Meadowdale with a tradition of excellence.

OPTIMUS LED UPWARD

National Honor Society

Optimus, Meadowdale's academic honorary, recognizes those students who have reached for and maintained high scholastic standards. The number of members climbs higher every year. At the traditional December initiation, seventy new members were officially accepted. These were students who had maintained at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average. By their example as a group and as individuals, the members of Optimus have been successful in raising the academic standards of Meadowdale Senior High.

TWO TRAVELERS

HOIST M.H.S. PRIDE

Dear American Friends,

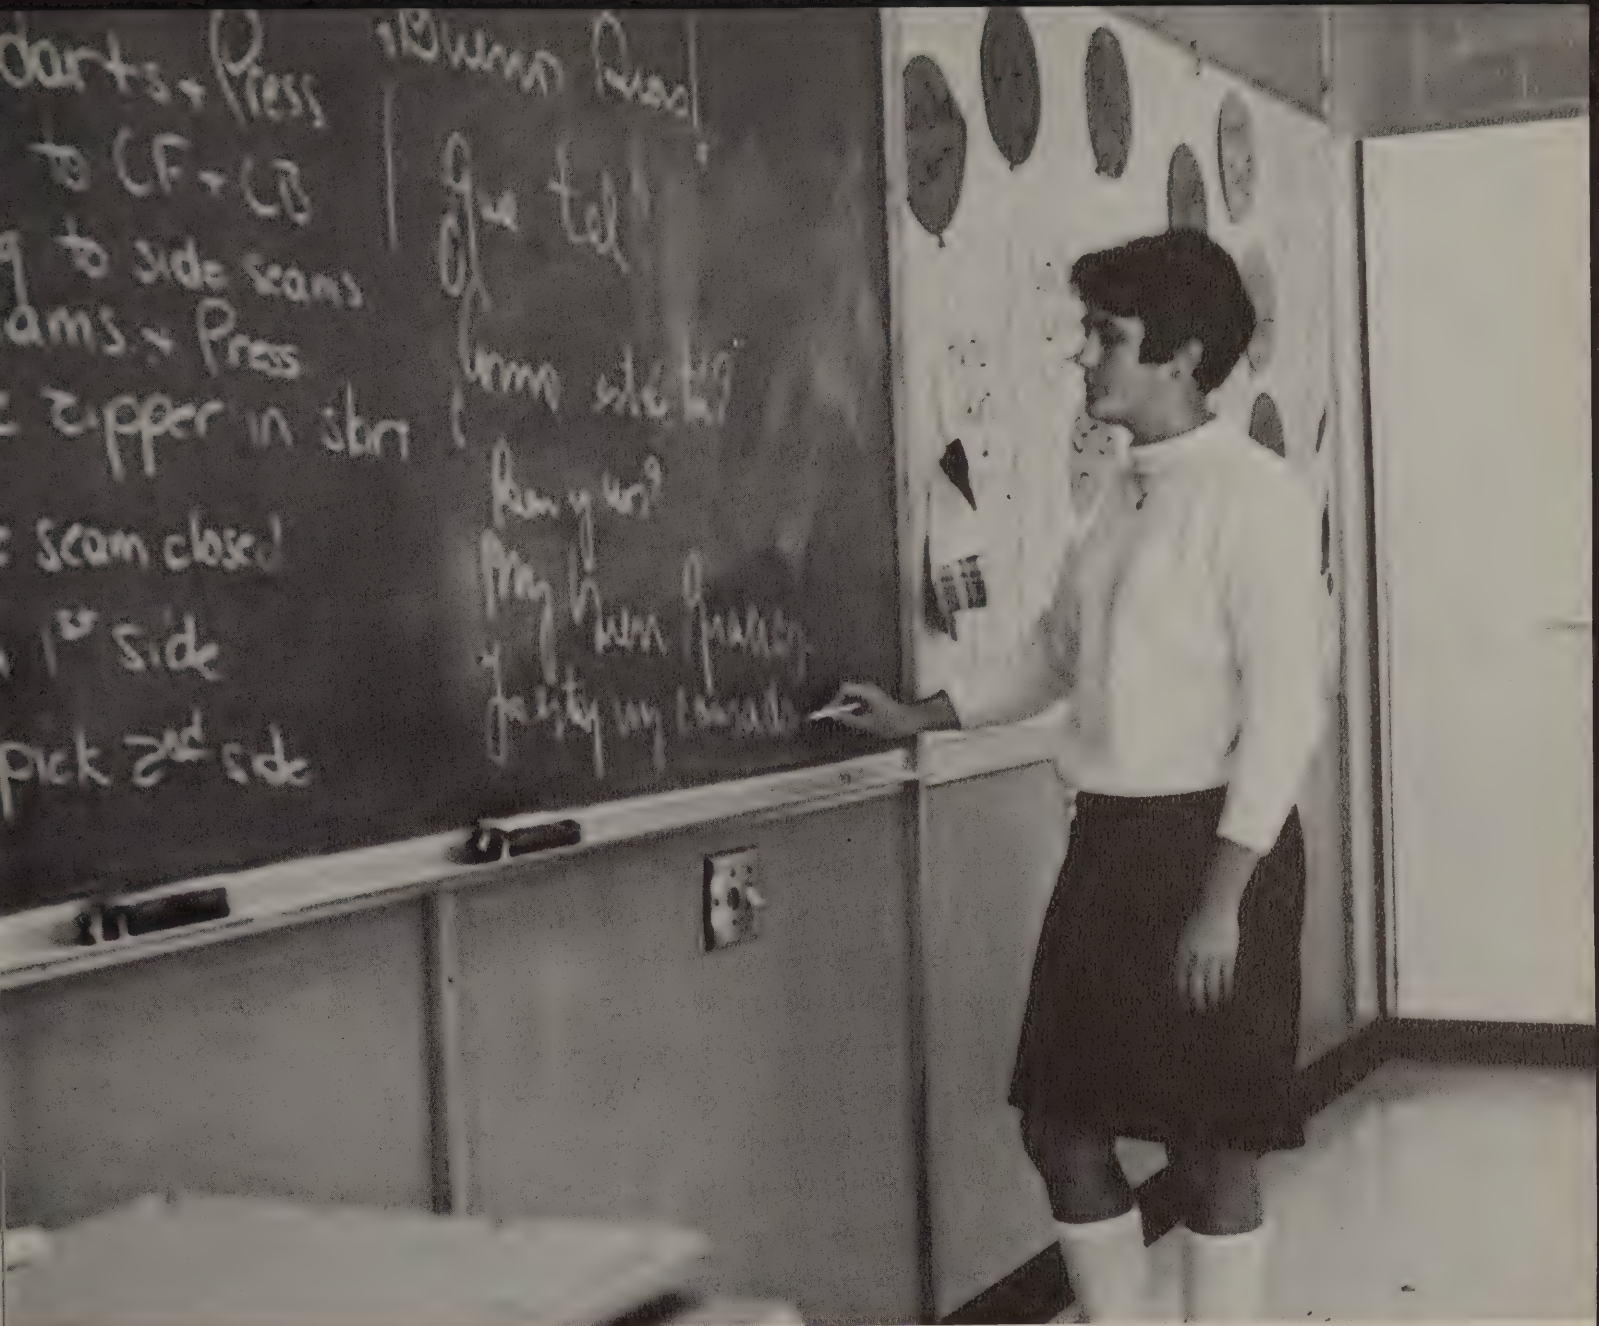

I address you in the fading twilight of my high school life with one purpose in mind — to thank each and everyone of you for the happy and wonderful moments you have given me.

In the name of Meadowdale Senior High School, I do really express my gratitude to the school administration through the principal for giving me the opportunity to study in this school. To the senior counselor, Mrs. Simpson for the guidance and help and to the dear members of the faculty for the wonderful classes I had with them.

On behalf of the whole student body, I should like to acknowledge the International Relations League and the Model United Nations Organization, through the able leadership of Sheila Page and Barb Dart respectively. To all those who had given me more than what I had expected — I should like to convey my sincerest gratitude and appreciation for making my senior year a very memorable, if not the most memorable, time of my life. This is something I shall never forget.

Again, I should like to say, but in my native language, "MARAMI PONG SALAMAT SA INYONG LAHAT" — Thank you very much to all of you.

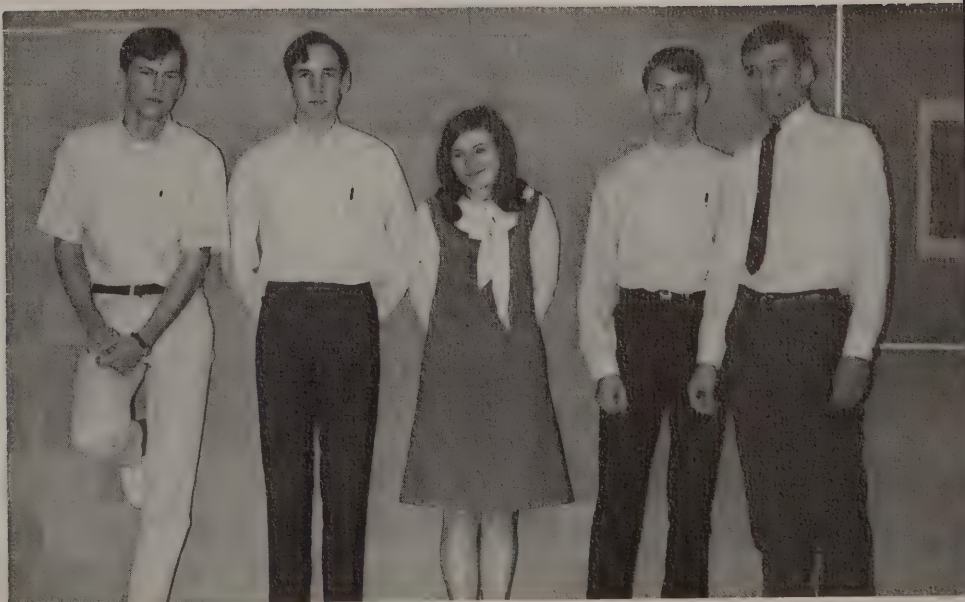

Florante Mori
(call me Butch)

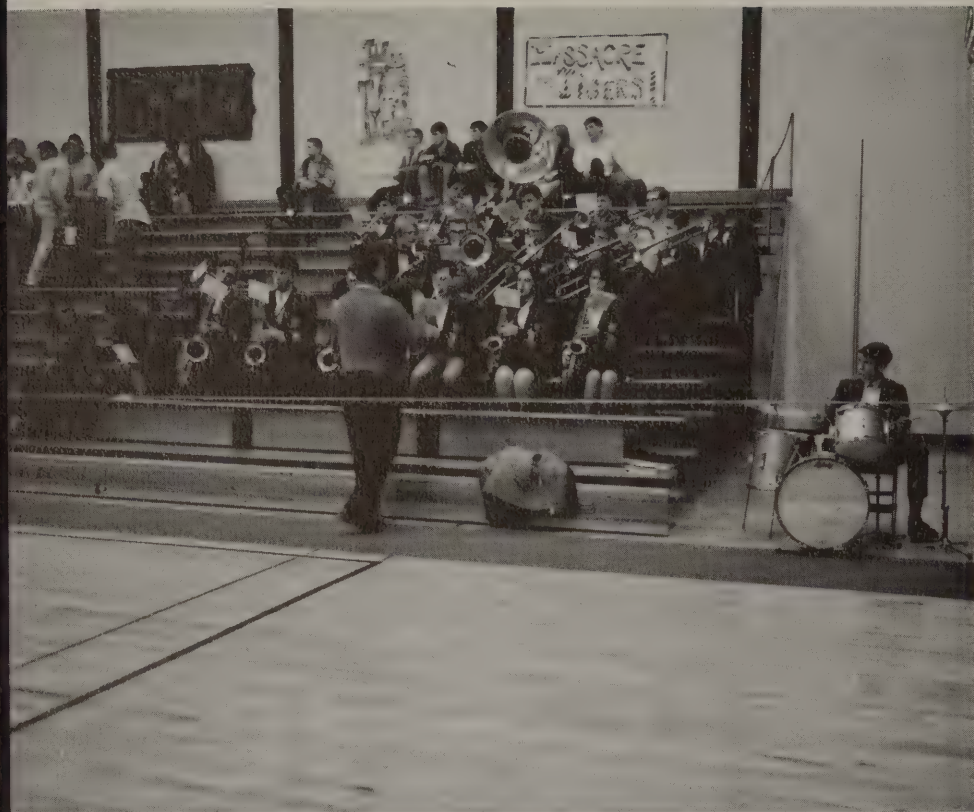

Foreign student Estela Bence from Argentina explains her native language to MHS students.

The lively, mischievous grin glowing in a bronze face and the slim, dark-haired prettiness of a Latin girl gave to the MHS student body and faculty a feeling of international gaiety and friendship. During the past school year, Florante Mori from the Philippines and Estela Bence from Argentina offered not only the warm, personal side of their lives to many friends at Meadowdale but also a first-hand report on life and people in their homelands. Although neither Estela nor Florante were sponsored by the Meadowdale International Relations League, President Sheila Page and the members of IRL proudly adopted the two and eagerly guided them into school activities and upward toward a wider scope of American life.

TOP-RATED BAND AND ORCHESTRA PLAY TO MHS AUDIENCES

After long hours of practice and rehearsal, Mr. Erich Koker conducts the orchestra in a fine performance at the annual Mid-Winter Concert.

The band, under the direction of Mr. Burton, and the orchestra, directed by Mr. Koker, provided Meadowdale with cultural education as well as exciting entertainment. Evidence of their talent and hardwork has been seen at the fine biannual concerts presented by the Meadowdale Music Department. Both of these instrumental groups consist of students who are striving toward proficiency with their musical instruments.

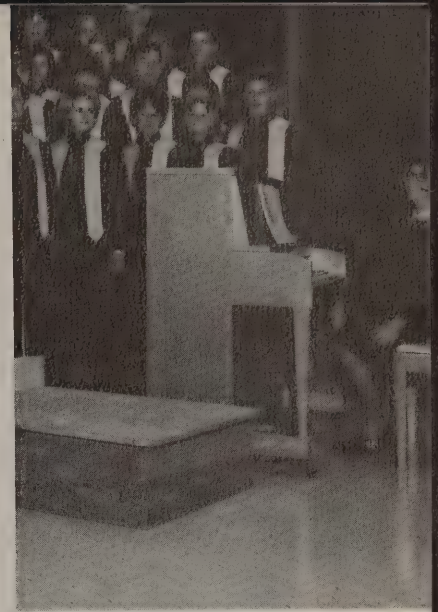

THE MUSIC GIVES M.H.S. IN ENT-E

The Impressions, or Imps for short, are Meadowdale's select vocal group. The groups' outstanding presentations of contemporary arrangements have delighted the student body as well as the surrounding community. With their casual and often comic style, the Impressions have brought to M.H.S. a high degree of showmanship and musical achievement.

Dave Arneson, Linda Bliss, Joan Boling, Bill Bone, Julie Denby, Marge Duff, Cheryl Dragoo, Bill Farley, Mary Ferchen, John Fox, Andy Hamack, Lynn George, Sharon Kelley, Kevin Murray, Marjori Nofziger, Steve Pearson, Gary Posenjak, Bill Pugh, Diane Riffle, Beth Sommars, Stephanie Smith, Steve Torrence, Don Whittlesey, Brenda Whittlesey, Keith Slattum, make up the Impressions.

Margie Nofziger has provided the choir and Impressions with vital talents as rehearsal pianist and concert accompanist.

On many late nights after school, freshly-painted signs lay scattered across the empty floor of senior hall with several girls and boys crouched stiffly over the paper. The dedicated few who so often held sticky-wet paint brushes in hand were the twelve who also stood faithfully before fans at every Meadowdale pep assembly, football game, and basketball game.

RAISES SPIRIT

YELL LEADERS - Doug Aukland and Doug Pittis

The Meadowdale cheerleading staff, led by Cheer Queen Marcia Harrell and Song Queen Kim Bingham, coaxed tremendous spirit and enthusiasm out of an often lukewarm student body. The spirit stick, which initiated exciting class competition during each pep assembly during the year, was won by Meadowdale's cheer squad at the 1966 summer cheerleader conference. Besides the difficult routines perfected and presented by the cheerleaders and songleaders, the school mascots Robin Klein and Mary Leahy, and yell leaders, Doug Pittis and Doug Aukland, added humor and distinction to Meadowdale's rooting section. Without the hard work and lively enthusiasm of the cheer squad, Meadowdale's spirit and loyalty to both the teams and school could not have climbed so high.

MISS WEEKS

MRS. WALLS

For another year the screams of enthusiastic girls have echoed through the gym. These girls who turned out for G.A.A. strove not only for enjoyment but for the development of skills as well. During the various sports-days and playdays held with other schools, the girls had an opportunity to exercise these skills in competition.

Leading G.A.A. and helping the girls realize their goals of enjoyment and development were the Letterwomen. This group is comprised of those girls who have earned a minimum of 1000 points in their G.A.A. activities. One of Letterwomen's main activities this year was sponsoring homecoming. Working steadily for over a month preparing for the dance, the girls efforts produced a successful and memorable homecoming.

Under the harsh glare of stadium and gym lights, navy blue outfits and emblems stepped quickly into precise columns and difficult routines. Each drill had taken hours of rigid practice and discipline; often the twenty-one girl team worked after school or in the evenings to improve and perfect their performance. Captain Patti Burke and co-captain Margo Joramo helped to create the many intricate routines and movements and to encourage the spirited style exhibited before pleased football and basketball crowds. At each assembly and pep rally, team members presented the flag and often sold programs at the games. Respect and admiration from the student body increased as Drill Team, through hard work and dedication, became an important part of Meadowdale's 1966-67 spirit and achievement.

These girls were selected by the student body as those who carry the Meadowdale spirit in their activities as well as academics. The candidates from left to right are: Barb Baumgartner, Patti Burke, Linna Carlsen, Barb Dart, MaryEllen DeBruler, Marlene Maxwell, Stephanie Smith. Not pictured is Julie Denby.

Stars hanging from the ceiling and a giant football resting beside the traditional blue throne created the sentimental atmosphere of the ol' '66 Homecoming Dance. This was a night held in honor of Meadowdale's graduates of 1966. In spite of the driving rain, many Chiefs came to the bonfire pep rally before the game with Cascade. After the bonfire the carvans wound its way noisily to the Edmonds stadium where the Chiefs rose up to defeat the Bruins 9-0. At the dance after the game the Chiefs waited anxiously as the Homecoming Queen and her court were announced. This night of victory and pride served as a tribute not only to Meadowdale's past but as a tribute to her future as well.

Cross Country. Football. Wrestling. Basketball. Baseball. Tennis. Track. All sports are represented in Varsity Club, a collection of Meadowdale's better athletes. To join Varsity Club, a boy must have earned a letter in a particular sport and remain active in that sport. Led by President Greg Anabel, Varsity Club staged a successful car raffle in the fall. One hundred dollars of the proceeds were designated for a scholarship fund. The rest of the money bought five-foot pennants which were given to each school and two championship pennants. When not participating in a sport, Varsity Club members support MHS by being ushers at games and running the concession stand. In addition, Varsity Club has purchased weights for the athletic department.

CHIEFS TIE

The Chiefs, with a relatively small and inexperienced football team, found the Western Conference competition keen and the opponents big. The boys played hard and worked well together as a team. Winning an exciting game in which fine defensive play stopped the Terrace Hawks from scoring the winning touchdown, the Chiefs gathered momentum. They went on to win the Homecoming game with the Cascade Bruins. Bruce Farley completed a pass to Greg Anabel for a Chief touchdown early in the game. Again the Chiefs scored with an inspired defensive play, a safety. Meadowdale was well represented by a tireless group of boys who had the desire to play football.

CONFERENCE, DISTRICT, 3RD IN STATE

Grins lit the faces of the muddy, exhausted boys as they ran through the narrow victory lane following an exciting finish. The 1966-67 season produced Meadowdale's greatest cross country team; experience and hard work led them to a win early in the year. At the Edmonds Invitational Cross Country Relay Meet in October, the Chiefs placed second out of eighteen schools. As confidence and unity as a team increased even more, the boys climbed upward to the Western Conference and Northwest District championships. The climax of the season came at the State Meet, where the 1966-67 Meadowdale squad captured a third-place victory. During the year, many of the runners reached individual goals; Jerry Richmond and Paul Anderson broke and reset many of the school records and Don Miller was cross country's first three-year returning letterman. The spirit and determination of Coach Eason and each member of the cross country team gained respect and admiration from the students of MHS.

BASKETBALL

Despite a losing season, the Chief basketball squad proved it had spirit and enthusiasm by playing many close, exciting games. Under the coaching of Mr. Phil Hull, the team tried its best to build itself to new heights in pride and ability in every game.

This year was a building year for the Meadowdale basketball team, with three juniors and a sophomore as starters. With returning lettermen Marty Axness, John Fox, Tom Linnell, Greg McCollum, and Al Amundson, the 1967-68 season can be optimistically anticipated.

The Junior Varsity and Sophomore teams had a more successful season than the Varsity by winning many of their games. Coach Roger Ottmar, of the Sophomore team, and Coach Pat Eason, of the Junior Varsity team, said the season was very rewarding, because both teams reached consistently for success.

PRODUCTIVE SEASON

After attracting larger crowds with each exciting match, the Chief wrestlers completed their regular season with an excellent record of 7 wins and 5 losses. At the end of the season, the grapplers again performed very well by placing 3rd in the sub-district meet. Even though the team began the season with only two returning lettermen, Senior team captain Steve Meyer and Junior Bob Scharer, their drive and determination proved to be the key in achieving their goals of success. Head coach Mr. Bruce Cook and assistant Mr. Terrance Johnson, as well as the whole student body, had reason to be proud of the winning efforts put out by the Meadowdale High wrestlers.

Next year the wrestling squad will bring back eight lettermen. With their experience and the benefit of a respectable 1966-1967 season behind them, their representation of Meadowdale should be exceptional.

and CELEBRITIES

Along with the hard work of the staff and the support of the student body, a good annual needs financial help. This year the MESIKA has been fortunate in working with a particularly understanding group of local businessmen. These people, who have given both their money and personal encouragement to the MESIKA, deserve a sincere thanks from the MESIKA staff and from the school.
